CHAPTER 59:01
LANDS DEPARTMENT ACT

30 of 1903

An Act to provide for the establishment and regulation of the Department of Lands.

[26th SEPTEMBER, 1903]

Short title.
[1 of 1972]

1. This Act may be cited as the Lands Department Act.

2-5. [Repealed by Act. No. 15 of 1999]

Surveys of lands.

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the department shall execute all surveys of State land of which a grant, or licence, or permission of occupancy is to be issued, and of which a survey is required.

(2) The Minister may in any case permit any duly qualified surveyor other than a surveyor of the department to execute the survey.

Keeping of registers of grants and licences.

7. The department shall keep proper registers of all grants of state lands, or any licences connected therewith, heretofore issued, so far as they can be ascertained, and shall keep proper registers of all the grants and licences hereafter to be issued.

PROVISION AS TO GOVERNMENT LANDS

8. [Repealed by Act. No. 15 of 1999]

Registers.

9. The department shall keep proper and separate registers of all Government lands.

Rental or sale.
[9 of 1977
6 of 1997]

10. (1) Government lands shall only be rented or sold with the sanction of the President and on the terms and conditions determined by him.

c .98:03

(2) Wherever labour is employed on Government lands which are subject to a lease or permission, any person on producing proof to the holder of the lease, licence or permission, or to his agent, that he is a representative of a trade union registered under the Trade Union Act, or an official of an organisation approved by order of the Minister responsible for labour for the purposes of this section, may enter at any reasonable time any such Government lands for the purpose of—

- (a) holding discussions with persons employed thereon on the conditions of their employment;
- (b) making representations to the employer on behalf of the persons so employed; or
- (c) recruiting persons so employed as members of the trade union or organisation, as the case may be.

(3) The requirement to permit an entry authorised by subsection (2) shall be deemed a condition of every lease, licence or permission to which that subsection applies and a breach of that condition on more than one occasion shall render the lease, licence or permission liable to be cancelled or revoked, as the case may be.

(4) Any person who hinders or obstructs a representative or official referred to in subsection (2) in the exercise of his powers of entry under that subsection or in the carrying out of the purposes thereof shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of eight thousand two hundred and fifty dollars and to imprisonment for three months.

(5) Any person who falsely holds himself out as a person authorised to enter upon Government lands by virtue of this section (the burden of proof that he is so authorised being upon him) shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty-seven thousand five hundred dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

(6) The provisions of subsections (2) to (5) inclusive shall in so far as they apply to a representative of a trade union or an official apply mutatis mutandis to a Member of the National Assembly for the purposes of the exercise by him of the privileges and powers conferred by subsection 2(a) upon such a representative or official.

Conveyances.

11. (1) Where Government land is to be purchased or sold, conveyance thereof for and on behalf of the Government, after the authority of the President has been obtained, may be taken or made by the Commissioner or other officer authorised by the President to do so.

(2) No conveyance of any Government land shall be made to and in favour of anyone until it has been registered by the Commissioner.

President may direct conveyance of Government lands without payment of fee. [4 of 1972]

12. Where the President authorises a conveyance of any of the Government lands being made, the President may direct the conveyance to be made without the payment of a fee or on the payment of any specified fee not exceeding the fee for the time being payable by law.
